FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

SUNHILLO CORPORATION HOSTS CONGRESSMAN FRANK LOBIONDO

West Berlin, New Jersey, August 18, 2015. Sunhillo Corporation hosted honored guest Congressman Frank LoBiondo. Congressman LoBiondo was invited to Sunhillo, a South Jersey Small Business, to learn more about their involvement in FAA NextGen aviation and UAS technologies. “It was an honor to host Congressman LoBiondo at our facilities”, said Dave Whitman, President of the Sunhillo Corporation. “We are proud of our FAA heritage, our facilities, products and services in support of the FAA mission.”

Sunhillo’s involvement in the FAA’s NextGen program spans across all Phases of Flight. Sunhillo is working on current NextGen programs providing Engineering Test & Integration Services, Products and expertise. FAA NextGen programs Sunhillo is a key contributor include:

- Data Communications Integrated Services (Data Comm) - T&E services
- Automatic Dependent Surveillance Broadcast (ADS-B) - Products/Integration/Deployment
- Terminal Automation Modernization and Replacement (TAMR) – Sunhillo’s Longport as the Radar and Flight Data Gateway

Sunhillo is a proud team member of the Mid Atlantic Aviation Partnership (MAAP) which is one of the six official UAS Test Sites for the FAA. The primary mission of the six test sites is to integrate Unmanned Aircraft Systems (UAS) into the National Airspace System (NAS).

Congressman LoBiondo is a member of the House Transportation & Infrastructure Committee. He takes great pride in serving as the Chairman of the Subcommittee on Aviation, given its critical importance to South Jersey. He is also pleased to sit on the Subcommittee on Highways and Transit and the Subcommittee on Coast Guard & Maritime Transportation - both of which have jurisdiction over critical issues that affect New Jersey’s growing and ever-changing transportation needs. A staunch advocate for strengthening our nation’s security, Congressman LoBiondo also serves on the House Armed Services Committee and is a champion for New Jersey’s bases and service personnel, especially on issues of military pay and benefits. And, appointed in the 112th Congress, Frank serves on the House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence where he serves as Chairman of the newly-created 10-member CIA Subcommittee with oversight over the Central Intelligence Agency.

Sunhillo Corporation, in addition to its data communications product offerings, services and expertise is an FAA eFast partner. Sunhillo is the preferred provider of surveillance data distribution products, services and systems to the FAA, DOD, and civilian ATM providers in Asia, Europe, South America and the Middle East. Sunhillo Corporation, through Sunhillo Technical Services, its wholly owned subsidiary, also provides engineering, test and evaluation services to partners and customers including the FAA. Sunhillo Corporation also has a long history in providing solutions support, as valued teaming partners, on FAA NextGen initiatives.
